

Living Safely

with disabilities and special health needs

Going Out with a Group of People

When going out somewhere with a group of people, it is helpful to stay together to the places you go.

If you would like to go somewhere without the group, tell at least one of them where you are going and how to contact you.

Talk with the group about how and when you will get back together.

Continued on next page

Going Out with a Group of People – Continued on previous page.

It is important that young children do not leave the group alone.

We value the expertise of our partners in safety who have demonstrated their commitment to inclusive healthy communities.

The information contained in Living Safely with Disabilities and Special Health Needs (Living Safely) is provided for educational and informational purposes only. The content contains general information and may not reflect a person's individual needs or current legal developments or information. Children's Specialized Hospital makes no guarantee, either communicated or implied, about the accuracy, application, appropriateness, or completeness of the information within Living Safely, or at any other website to which it is linked. Children's Specialized Hospital specifically relinquishes all liability with respect to any person's actions, taken or not taken, based upon any or all of the information or other contents from Living Safely.

This initiative was funded in part by an Inclusive Healthy Communities Grant from the Division of Disability Services, New Jersey Department of Human Services.

For more Living Safely resources, visit www.rwjbh.org/cshlivingsafely

© 2021 Children's Specialized Hospital