

DIABETES EXPO

For Adults and Children

In honor of National Diabetes Awareness Month, this free education event will be presented by the Center for Diabetes Wellness and Prevention at the Barnabas Health Ambulatory Care Center and the RWJBarnabas-Rutgers Medical Group Pediatric Specialty Center.

Thursday, November 21, 2019

3:00 to 8:00 pm

Barnabas Health Ambulatory Care Center
200 South Orange Avenue, Livingston, NJ 07039

The event will also feature:

- Educational Tables
- Diabetes Risk Assessments
- Blood Pressure Screenings
- Blood Glucose Screenings

Light refreshments and free parking will be provided.

Join us for one or more of the following programs.

- 4:00 pm What is the National Diabetes Prevention Program (Prevent T2)?
Jennifer Meyers MS, RD, CDE, and Deanna Schweighardt RD, CDE
Center for Diabetes Wellness and Prevention, Barnabas Health Ambulatory Care Center
- 5:00 pm Advances in the Treatment of Diabetes
Sridhar S. Nambi, MD, Director, Division of Endocrinology, Saint Barnabas Medical Center
- 6:00 pm Managing Diabetes With Healthy Eating and Lifestyle Changes
Alexa Bacino, RD, CDE, Pediatric Specialty Center, RWJBarnabas-Rutgers Medical Group
- 7:00 pm New Technologies for Managing and Monitoring Diabetes
Dennis J. Brenner, MD, Chief, Division of Pediatric Endocrinology, Saint Barnabas Medical Center; Member, RWJBarnabas-Rutgers Medical Group

While this event is free, please register online at rwjbh.org/sbmcevents.

Barnabas Health
Ambulatory Care Center

RWJBarnabas
HEALTH

