

That's what friends do!

Make Friends with Autism
Coloring Book

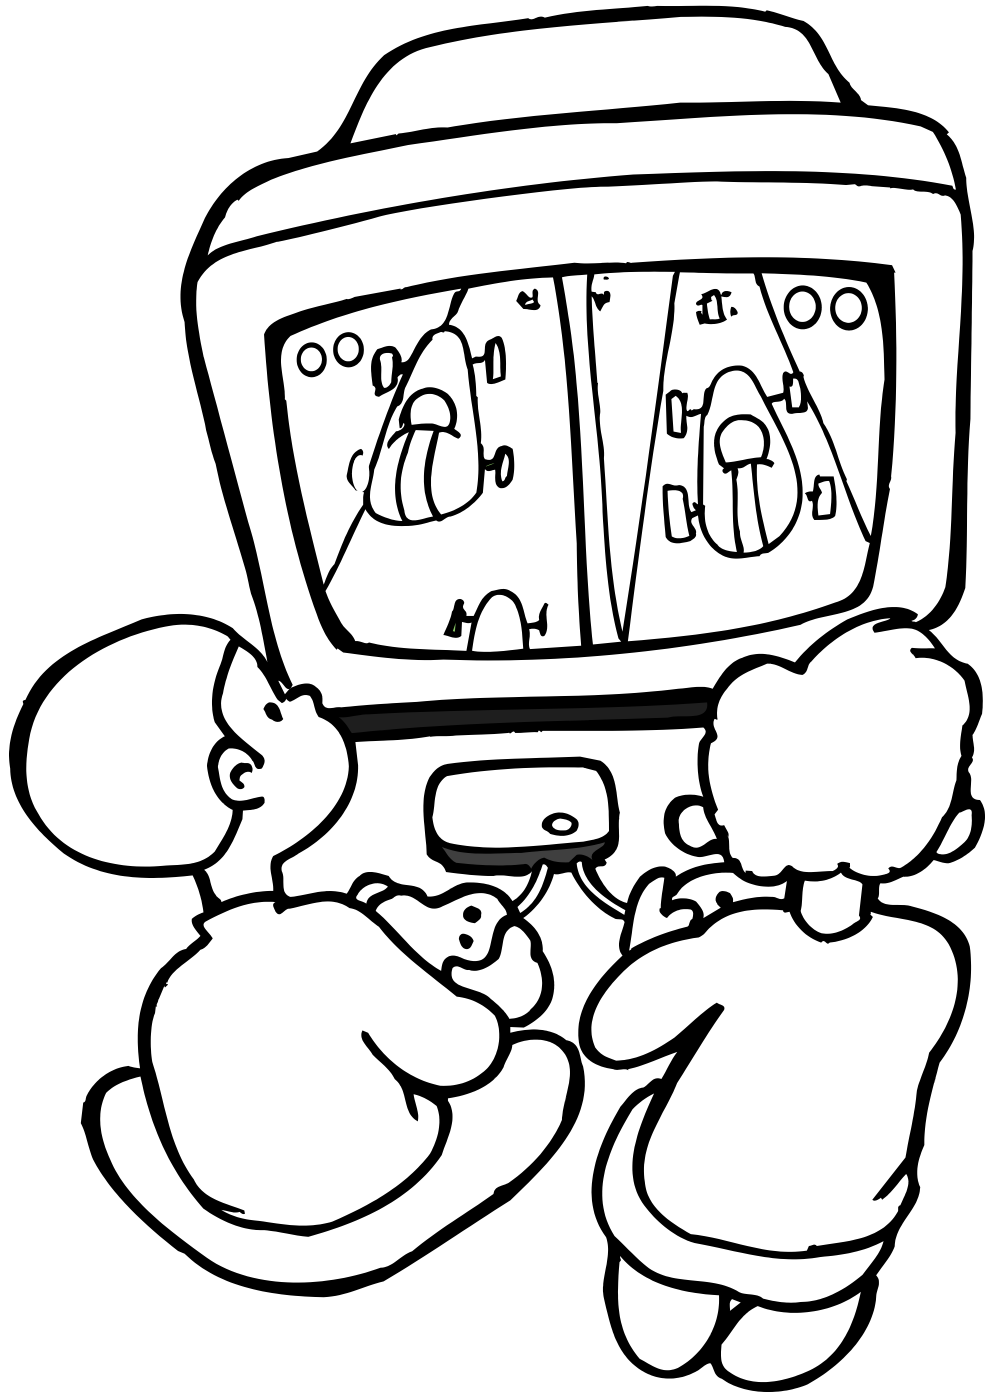

Everybody sees exactly what they please -
from just one point of view.
That's just what people do.

But if you seek to find
the common ties that bind,
then you will come to see,
I'm just like you...
That's what friends do.

Open the door. Let me in.
Reach out your hand.
Such a simple, simple thing.

Open your eyes. Look and see.
In every way,
we're the same as same can be.

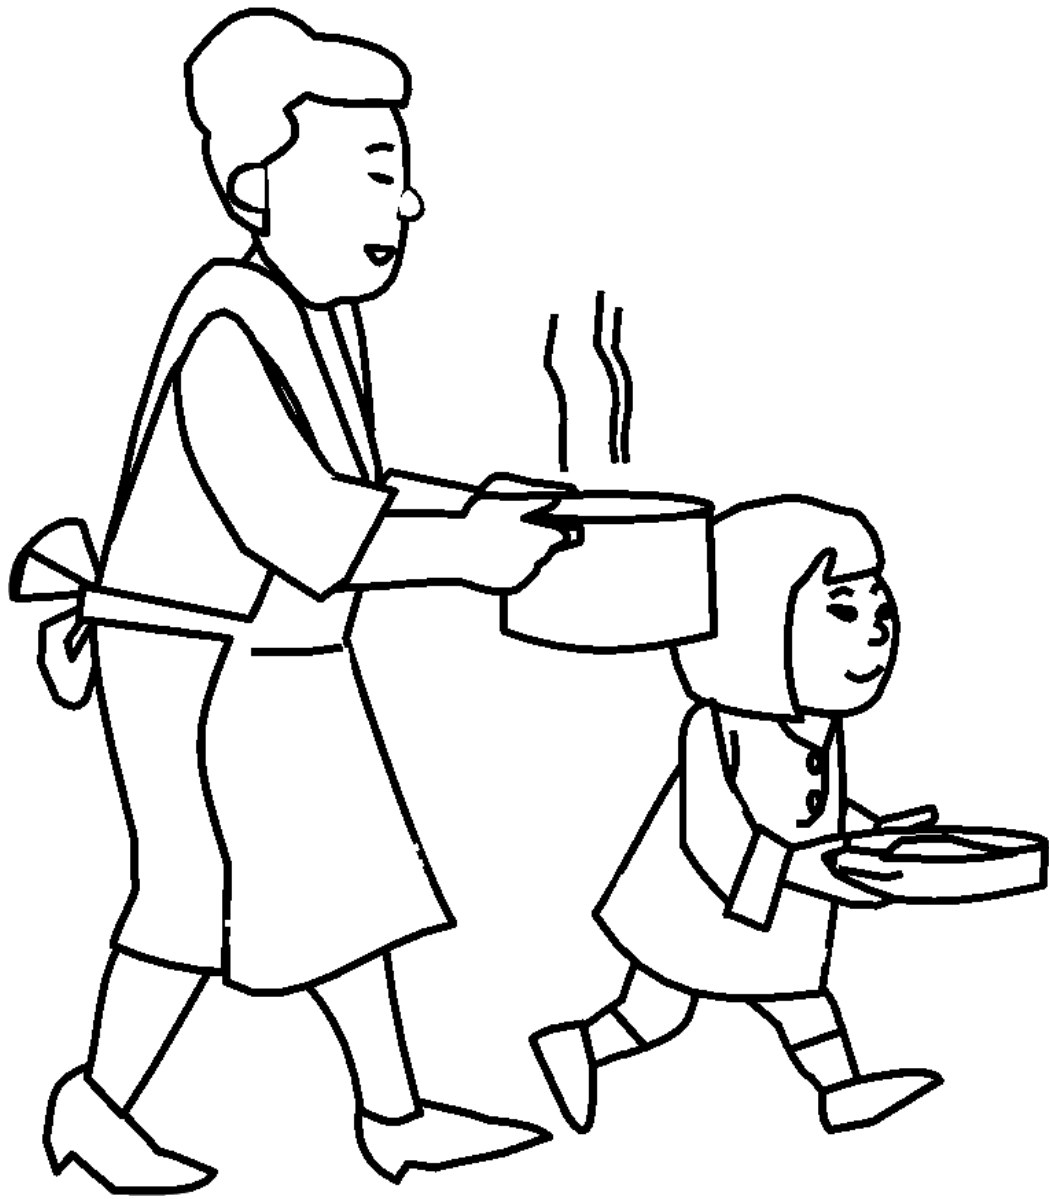

Open your mind. Let it run free.

Get to know me.

It's as easy as one, two, three.

Open your heart. That's the key.
Under your skin,
you're so very, very much like me.

Take the time to see that if you look behind my different-ness there will be a reflection sharp and clear of all the hopes and dreams
you hold so dear...

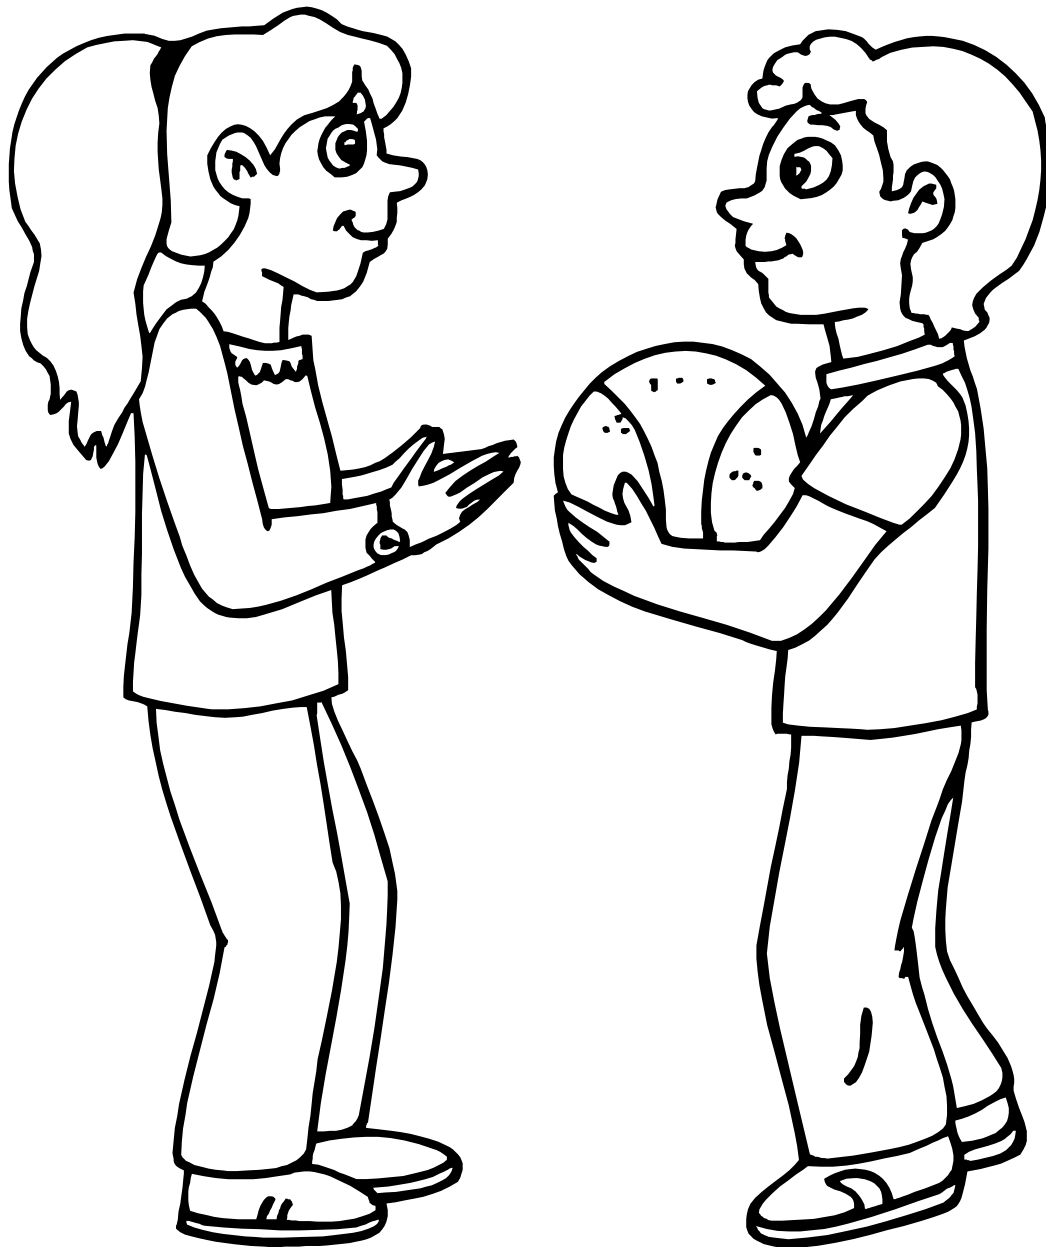

Open the door. Open your eyes.

Open your heart and mind.

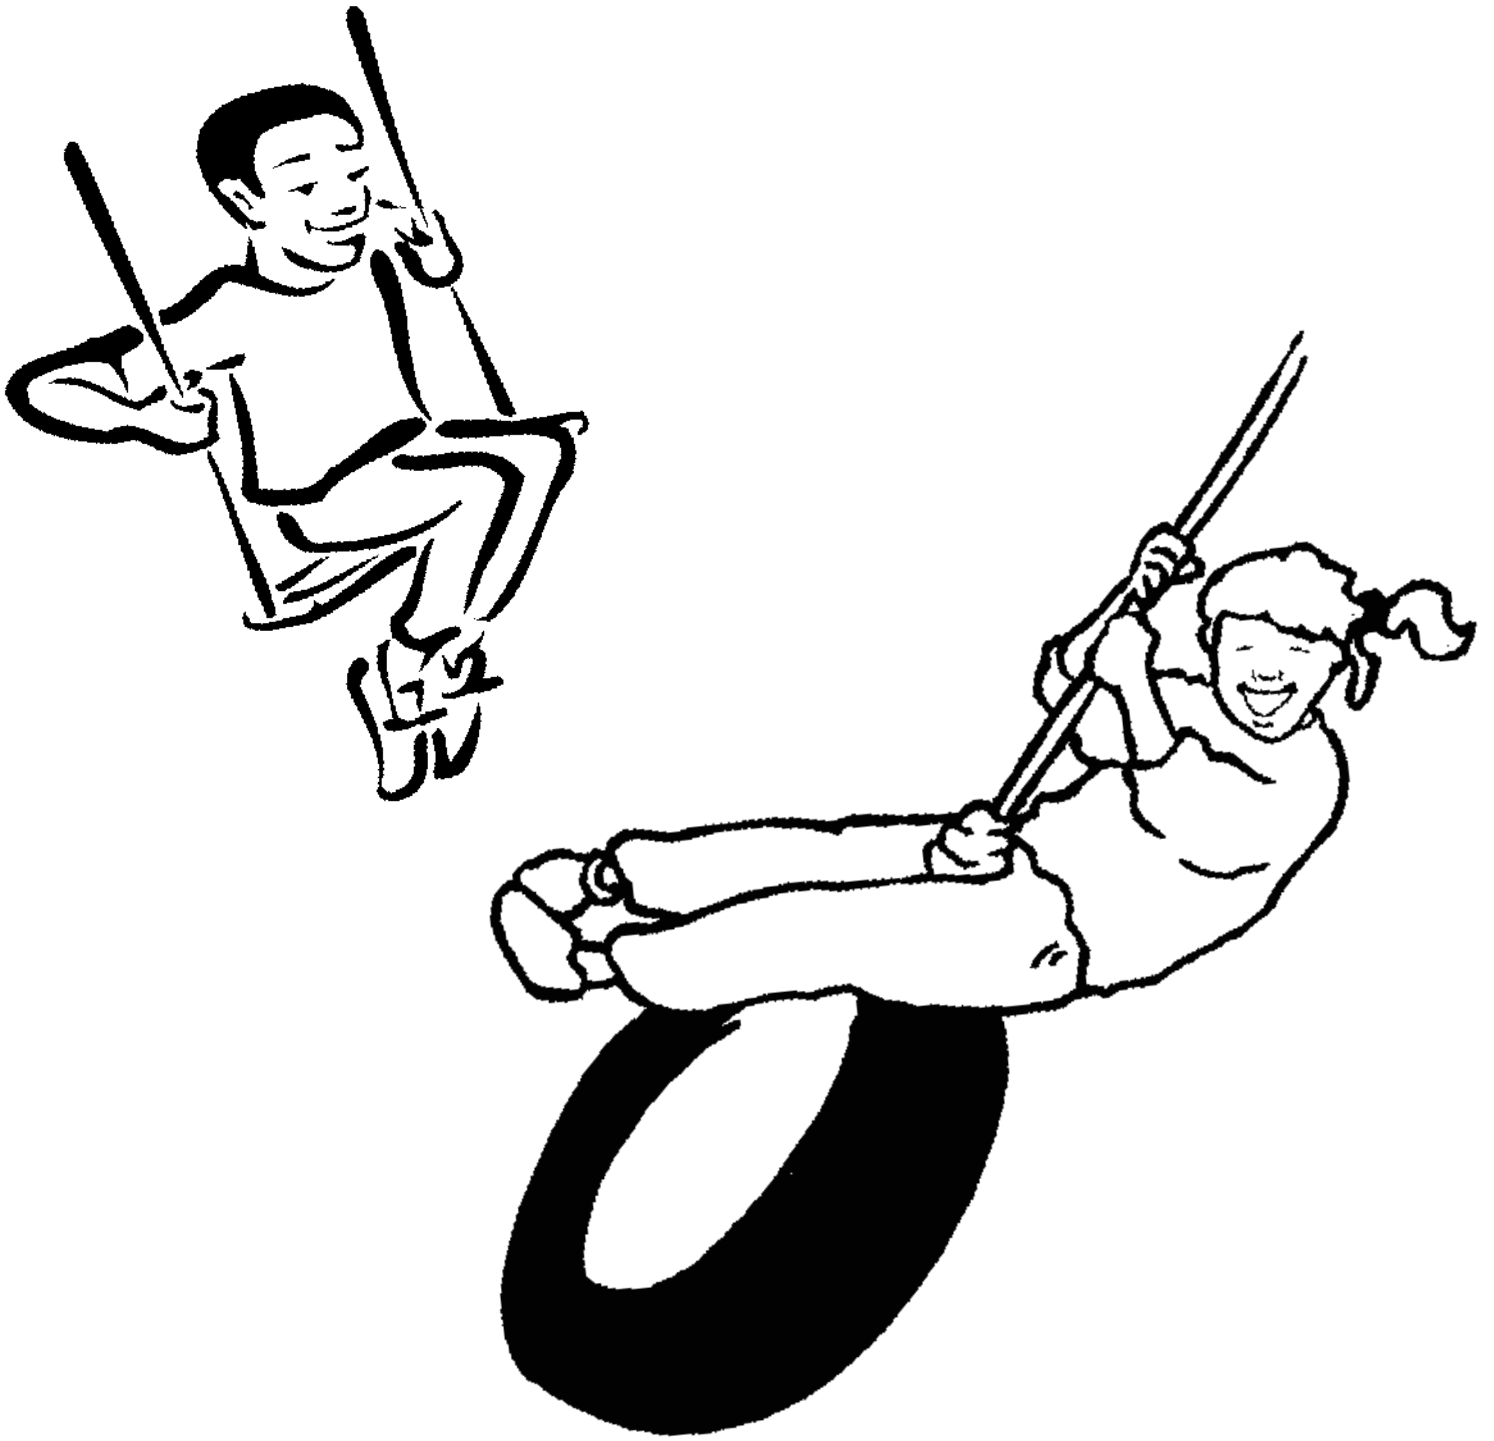

And you will find, to no surprise that...

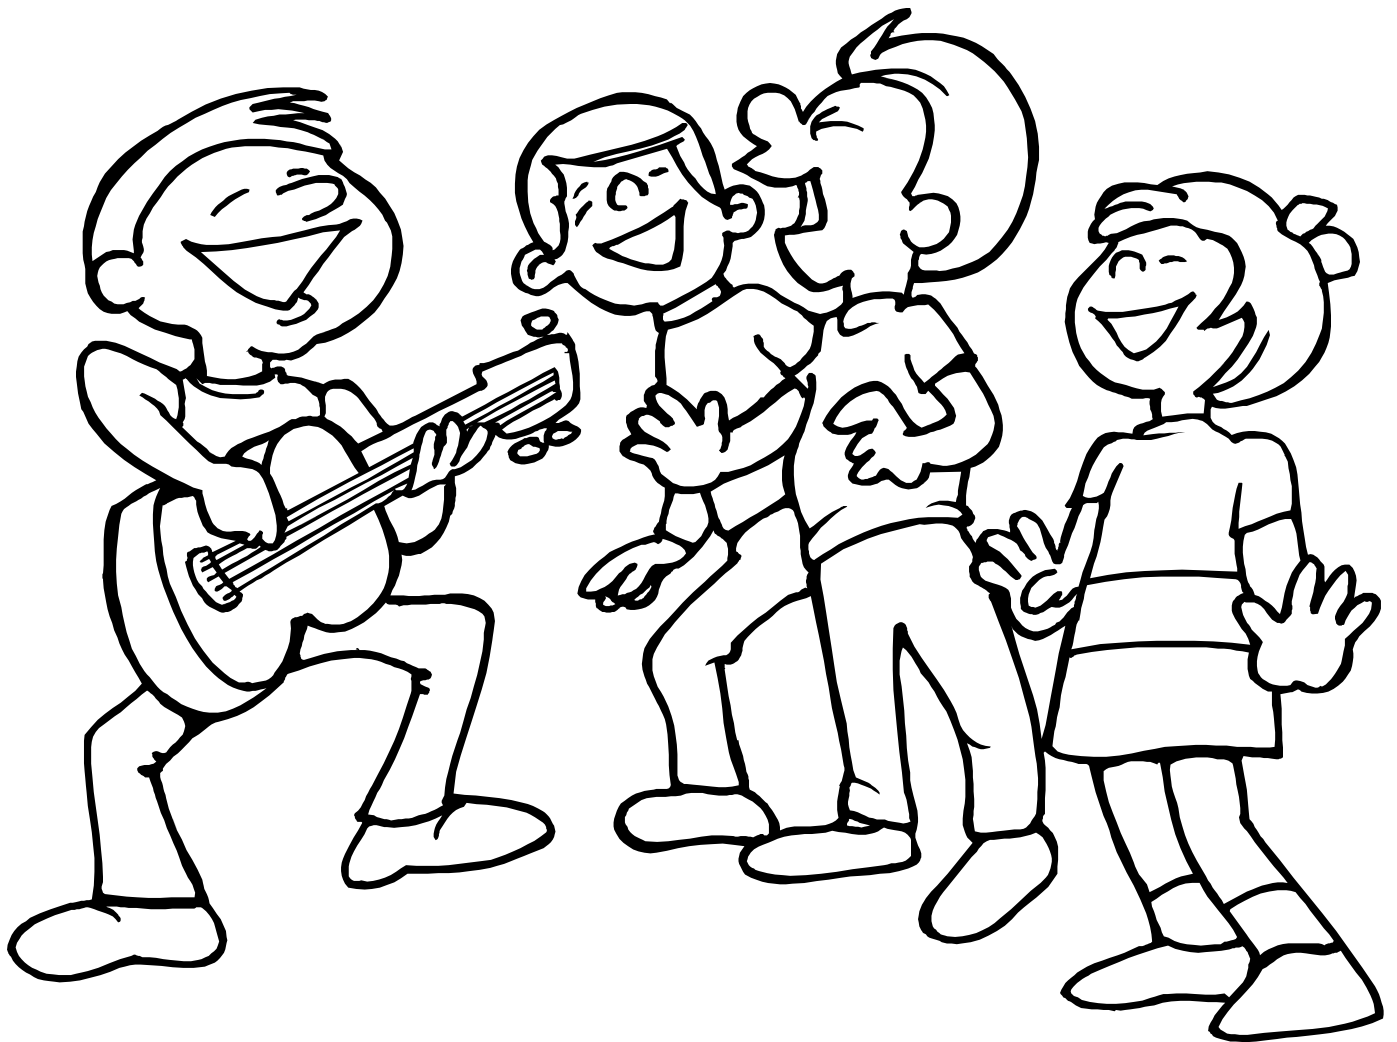

Everybody sees exactly what they please -
from just one point of view.
That's just what people do.

So when you come to find
the common ties that bind,
then you will finally see I'm just like you...
That's what friends do.

Everybody sees exactly what they please -
from just one point of view.
That's just what people do.

But if you seek to find
the common ties that bind,
then you will come to see
I'm just like you...

That's what friends do !
