

That's What Friends Do

CHORUS:

Everybody sees
Exactly what they please
From just one point of view
I know I do it too
But if you seek to find
The common ties that bind
Then you will come to see
I'm just like you...
That's what friends do

Open your door
Let me in
Reach out your hand
Such a simple, simple thing

Open your eyes
Look and see
In every way
We're the same, as same can be

CHORUS

Open your mind
Let it run free
Get to know me
It's as easy as one, two three

Open your heart
That's the key
Under your skin
You're so very, very much like me

CHORUS

BRIDGE:

Give me a chance
That if you look behind my different-ness
There'll be a reflection sharp and clear
Of all the hopes and dreams
You hold so dear

So, open your door
Open your eyes
Open your heart and mind
And you will find that to no surprise that...

Everybody sees
Exactly what they please
From just one point of view
That's just what people do

And when you come to find
The common ties that bind
Then you will finally see
I'm just like you...

That's what friends do!
