Satisfactory completion of core MS3 clerkships

Why do you wish to rotate at Newark Beth Israel Medical Center?

They

Why do you wish to rotate at Newark Beth Israel Medical Center?

Self

How do you identify as an individual traditionally excluded from opportunity and what does this scholarship

Open

Senior 4th year medical student in good standing at 3.

2.

1.

Eligible applicants must meet the following criteria:

• The student must identify as an individual who is historically excluded from opportunity.

• The selected scholarship recipient will have the opportunity to rotate through our emergency department including the adult ED, pediatric ED, fast track area and our observation unit.

• They will work alongside our dedicated and talented residents and faculty that have specialty interests in Ultrasound, EMS & Disaster Medicine, Pain and Addiction, and Simulation.

• The selected students will be granted a $1000 stipend that must be used to defray costs related to food, housing, transportation and other costs related to the EM rotation at Newark Beth Israel.

Application Information & Criteria

Eligible applicants must meet the following criteria:

1. Senior 4th year medical student in good standing at an accredited allopathic or osteopathic medical school

2. Satisfactory completion of core MS3 clerkships

3. Self-identification of minority or disadvantaged status:
   Traditionally excluded from opportunity: racial/ethnic minority group (Black, Latino, Native American, Pacific Islander)
   Gender/sexual orientation minority group (LGBTQ+)

How to Apply:

Please email the following criteria and essay information to monica.choksi3@gmail.com

✓ Updated CV & Professional Headshot

✓ Essay answering the following questions:
   ➢ Why do you wish to have a career in Emergency Medicine?
   ➢ Why do you wish to rotate at Newark Beth Israel Medical Center?
   ➢ How do you identify as an individual traditionally excluded from opportunity and what does this scholarship mean to you?

Applications Open Until 9/15/23!