

See Yourself in Nursing

RWJBarnabas Health School of Nursing and Union College of Union County, NJ (UCNJ) jointly conduct a Cooperative Nursing Program. This program awards a Diploma in Nursing from RWJBarnabas Health School of Nursing and an Associate of Science degree from UCNJ upon successful, 5 semesters and/or 2.5 years, completion of the curriculum. RWJBarnabas Health School of Nursing now has 2 locations - Elizabeth and Oceanport, NJ. The generic RN track is offered at both locations. However, the LPN to RN track is offered at the Elizabeth location.

Our program provides a sound theoretical base of knowledge in nursing, biological, behavioral and social sciences and integrates this knowledge into academic and practical experiences within the health/illness continuum of patient care. The curriculum has many options from which to select in order to complete the program of study.

Fully accredited by The Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN), and approved by the New Jersey State Board of Nursing.
