

THE REGIONAL PERINATAL CENTER AT ROBERT WOOD JOHNSON UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL

About the Center

Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital is a dedicated Regional Perinatal Center (RPC) offering the highest level of obstetric and neonatal services in New Jersey.

We offer a full range of specialized care including:

- preconception counseling for women on Rx for a chronic condition before pregnancy
- couples with high risk factors for genetic problems before pregnancy
- women with medical problems such as epilepsy, renal transplant, HIV-positive status or cardiovascular disease
- pregnant women with multiples or a previous pre-term infant
- pregnant women for whom a second opinion is desirable

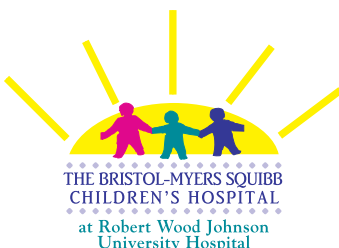

732-828-3000 ext. 8671

THE REGIONAL PERINATAL CENTER AT ROBERT WOOD JOHNSON UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL

Program Highlights:

- The state's most advanced program for evaluating and preventing pre-term births and pregnancy loss.
- A $24 million enhancement and renovation of our obstetrical unit to include state-of-the-art maternity care with hotel-like amenities.
  - 12 labor and delivery rooms
  - 20 post-partum rooms
  - 17 ante-partum loft rooms for obstetric emergencies
  - 4 bed post-anesthesia recovery unit
  - 3 operating rooms located in 36,000 square feet
  - Maternal-fetal medicine specialists available 24/7 with a multi-D support team.
  - Newly renovated physician's lounge equipped with:
    - State-of-the-art central fetal surveillance monitors with remote access from mobile device, office or home.
    - Expanded nurses' station with a physician dictation area.
- Direct access for physicians to the 37-bed Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU)

Access to:

- Central Fetal Monitoring in the Medical Intensive Care Unit (MICU).
- State-of-the-art technology and skilled staff with experience in phototherapy and IV antibiotics.
- A complete pediatric health campus which includes:
  - The Bristol-Myers Squibb Children's Hospital
  - The Child Health Institute of New Jersey
  - PSE&G Children's Specialized Hospital
  - Ronald McDonald House
  - Embrace Kids Foundation